“MEET YOUR NEIGHBORS” SYMPOSIUM IN WARREN

The Islamic Organization of North America (IONA), in cooperation with the National Conference for Community and Justice (NCCJ) and the Council on American - Islamic Relations, Michigan Chapter (CAIR-MI) is organizing a "Meet your Neighbors - Examining the Shared Heritage of Faith" symposium to be held on Thursday, June 8, 2006 at the Warren Community Center Auditorium (5460 Arden, Warren MI).

Guest speakers include Fr. Gary Schulte, St. Sylvester Church; Barbara Sollose, president of the Central Homeowners of Warren; Dawud Walid, executive director of CAIR-MI, and Steve Mustapha Elturk, imam and president of IONA. The program will be moderated by Rev. Sharon Buttry, from the NCCJ.

We expect a wide range of guests including local community organizations, civic and religious leaders, education professionals and law enforcement personnel, as well as local media. Refreshments will be available.
