Calling for Accountability – Netanyahu's War Crimes Must Not Go Unpunished

[Warren, MI] – In light of recent events and the undeniable atrocities committed under the leadership of Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, we, as concerned citizens and advocates for human rights, demand immediate action. The evidence of war crimes is overwhelming and irrefutable.

Prime Minister Netanyahu's actions have resulted in the deaths of over 40,000 innocent lives, including women and children. The relentless bombardment of Gaza has not only caused a humanitarian catastrophe but also led to the destruction of 75% of the civil infrastructure in Gaza, crippling essential services and displacing countless families. Furthermore, the aggressive annexation of lands in the West Bank stands in blatant violation of international law and disregards the basic human rights of Palestinians.

We call on Congress to take a stand against these gross violations of human rights and international law. It is imperative that Netanyahu is held accountable for his actions. This means boycotting any engagement with him and demanding his arrest for war crimes. The international community must not turn a blind eye to these atrocities.

The United States has a responsibility to uphold justice and protect the rights of all people, regardless of nationality or religion. By allowing Netanyahu to continue his oppressive regime without consequences, we are complicit in these crimes.

We urge Congress and all relevant authorities to:

1. Boycott any official meetings or engagements with Prime Minister Netanyahu.
2. Initiate proceedings to arrest Netanyahu for his war crimes.
3. Support international efforts to bring Netanyahu to justice.
4. Advocate for the rebuilding of Gaza and the restoration of its civil infrastructure.
5. Condemn the illegal annexation of lands in the West Bank and support Palestinian sovereignty.

We stand with the victims of these horrific actions and pledge to continue our fight for justice. The world must unite to ensure that such crimes are never repeated and that those responsible are held to account.
